Paul McGill, J.T. Atkinson, Darlington

“We chose to book Jim for our office Christmas party based on the recommendation of a colleague who saw him performing in Edinburgh – he did not disappoint. Jim effectively performed table magic, efficiently working his way around the tables and leaving a path of blown minds in his wake. I would highly recommend Jim as he was very professional and talented for what I wouldn't imagine was an easy gig. He has clearly spent many years honing his craft and I have no hesitation in endorsing him. You would not believe the things this man can do with a KitKat.”

Angus Munro, Barnett Waddingham, LLP, Glasgow, 2017
